

Storm

I love watching waves crash on rocks at the beach. There is just something incredibly majestic about the heaving and hurling of waves as they relentlessly pound upon the seashore. There is a power to the ocean that is both wonderful and terrifying at the same time.

Luke 8:22-25 (ESV)

22 One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they set out, 23 and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water and were in danger. 24 And they went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves, and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and they marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even winds and water, and they obey him?"

I've always wondered what kind of a storm it would take to terrify seasoned fishermen in their own territorial waters. The short answer is; not a natural one. This tempest was unlike anything they'd ever experienced before and was beyond their ability to manage.

In life we too will experience storms that are beyond our experience and capacity to handle. Whilst these are scary and painful and heart-breaking, we have the hope of Our Lord.

John 16:33 (ESV)

33 I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

Tribulation is promised to us, and yet our ultimate victory is already assured as a result of what Jesus has done. Though we might be bruised and battered by the world we live in, we must remember our faith (Luke 8:25) in the One in whom our victory dwells. Take heart child of God!
